New York Green Business Program

The New York State Department of Environmental Conservation has just launched a new green business recognition program called the New York Green Business program. It is free and voluntary to participate in. The program provides recognition and benefits to businesses, including golf courses, which operate sustainably.

Benefits of membership include recognition from the State, ability to use the logo to market yourself as an environmental leader, priority access to technical assistance through the Pollution Prevention Institute, and access to a network of sustainability leaders.

For more information visit, including the application and guidance, visit the program website or contact Brendan Woodruff (brendan.woodruff@dec.ny.gov or 518-402-9159).
